

A Conversation with Norbert Kather

Description

A teacher and social worker from Germany, Norbert Kather is visually challenged and has actively worked with the differently abled in Africa. A keen traveler, he visited Pondicherry and Auroville after Kerala. The Inquirer team discovered he is also interested in studying Indian culture and the the status of women and differently abled in India.

Interview: Radhika Khanna

Camera: Dileep P

Editing: Dileep P

Beyond Disability

See archives The Inquirer Volume 1 No.4 December 2009 page 1 & 5

Category

1. Abled (Differently)

Date Created

June 28, 2011

Author

admin