

Third Eye – An art exhibition

Description

A solo painting and art exhibition by artist K. K. Segar, titled 'Third Eye' is being organized by Shilpataru from 19 February, 2014 at The Promenade, Beach Road, Pondicherry. Around 50 paintings on different themes were exhibited in the lobby and on the walls of the restaurant. Shilpataru is a foundation which seeks to bring art and beauty into daily life. As a part of its initiative in promoting local talent, Shilpataru has organized this exhibition to showcase the new wave in acrylic painting through the works of K.K. Segar. The paintings exhibited range from themes of nature, mythology, super natural thoughts, devotion to the different dimensions of life. The most reviewed works include 'Living Flowers', which is a portrait of The Mother in an innovative style of painting and 'Linked Life', which is a representation of Eve and Fruit of sin, a biblical theme. Other works are the portraits of Budha, Ganesha, Karpaka Vruksham etc. The exhibition is opened to all till 5 March 2014.
