

2nd Asian Women's Film Festival

Description

Department of Electronic Media and Mass Communication in collaboration with International Association of Women in Radio and Television – India brings to you 2nd Asian Women's Film Festival, 2012. This year the festival brings to you 36 films from 13 countries that celebrate a diversity of women filmmakers, covering the gamut from international favourites to artistic experiments along the fringes of the genre to community radio. The festival will be held at SOM Auditorium, from 9-11 March, from 10.00 am onwards.
